ABM Pew Reflection

St Mary Magdalene

Song of Songs 3.1-4a; Psalm 63; 2 Corinthians 5.14-21; John 20.1-18

When the risen Jesus calls Mary Magdalene by name in the garden she recognises him instantly – there are parallels with Jesus and the disciples who are fishing, and the two disciples on the road to Emmaus where, in both cases, it is something that Jesus says that makes them realise who he is.

- Lord, help me to use my voice so that people see who I really am, a follower of Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, the one who has redeemed me.
- Give thanks for work and witness of Anglican women's Religious Orders throughout the world.
