Fr Giles Motisi standing in front of the administration office with the Modawa Tree (New Guinea rosewood) in the background.

'Strongly grows the Modawa Tree'

This was the title of Bishop David Hand's Book. This referred to the corner post of the first chapel built by the two pioneer missionaries Albert Maclaren and Copland King. It sprouted and now is a large tree.

The new institute bears that name as a spiritual symbol of the growth of the church. It symbolises the past but at the same time gives us the hope in to the future.

ABM was the initiator at the beginning and has been a partner in the spiritual journey of the Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea. May ABM, too, grow as strongly as the Modawa Tree.

LAY CONFERENCE

Saturday 13 September
-10am to 3pm
at St Luke's Wallsend.

This year sees the return of a Spring Conference to empower Newcastle Anglicans for ministry. The conference is tailored to equip and encourage lay people in their faith and ministry.

The Training will be conducted by Margaret Mowczko (margmowczko.com).
